credit into undergraduate programs at JMU except in the Adult Degree Program.

As previously mentioned, students must complete at least one college-level course in each of the core academic areas (language, lab science, math, or humanities and social science) prior to applying for guaranteed admission. This requirement must be met through coursework or exam scores that are eligible for transfer credit at JMU. Exam scores that a student wishes to be considered must be sent by the admissions application deadline.

Students who are currently enrolled at JMU and wish to receive the benefits of an approved
